Bharatpur – Sapotra (145 Kms / 03.30 hrs)

After breakfast check-out from Hotel and drive to Ramathra Fort (Sapotra) - This dreamy little hotel lies in a beautifully un-spoilt and pretty area of Eastern Rajasthan, south-east of Jaipur. The 350 year old Ramathra Fort was originally the 17th Century stronghold of the Jadoan Rajputs and today belongs to Ravi Raj Pal who is descendent of the founder. It sits on a hillock, surrounded by farmland, wilderness, lakes and other hillocks. The views are spectacular and even during the driest months, the area remains green and the lake retains its water. According to legend, Lord Ram is said to have halted here, enchanted by the beauty and peace, en route south during his exile. Ramathra Fort also lies between two of India's great wildlife reserves, Keoladeo Ghana Bird Sanctuary in Bharatpur and Ranthambhore Tiger Reserve in Sawai Madhopur. This area of The Daang plateau, which stretches east and south, is filled with gorges and rivulets and is home to several varieties of deer, blue bulls, wolves, jackals, hyenas, wild boar, leopard etc. Whilst here, your hosts Ravi and Gitanjali Rajpal (should they be in residence) will be very much around to chat to and they will make your stay as wonderful as it possibly can be. Upon arrival check into hotel and rest of the time is free at leisure to enjoy the Hotels facilities (or) rejuvenate the body through Ayurvedic massage (on direct payment basis). Stay overnight at Hotel.

day 4

Sapotra – Ranthambore (60 Kms / 2 Hrs. approx.)

After Leisurely breakfast check-out from Hotel and drive to Ranthambore - Once a private game reserve of the royal House of Jaipur, Ranthambore National Park and Tiger Reserve is one of the world's best known wilderness areas. Ranthambore offers some of the finest opportunities for sighting the magnificent tiger in the wild. A mix of rolling hills and crags, and meadows, lakes and rivulets, this dry-deciduous forest system is home to an incredible variety of flora and fauna. Apart from the tiger, you can also spot sloth bear, leopard, caracal, jackal, fox, hyena and mongoose at Ranthambore. The elusive Indian wolf too, has been spotted here occasionally. The dainty chital, sambhar deer, the blue bull antelope or nilgai, rhesus macaque, langur and an incredible variety of birds amidst a setting of dhok, fig and banyan trees makes a visit to this park a delight – for tourists and naturalists alike. Upon arrival check into hotel and rest of the time is free at leisure to enjoy the Hotels facilities (or) rejuvenate the body through Ayurvedic massage (on direct payment basis). day 5

In Ranthambore

Early morning get ready the second round of Jeep Safari into the Tiger Reserve at a leisurely pace. Ranthambore is one of the few preserves where the nocturnal camera-shy tigers may be seen in daylight. Almost hunted to extinction by the local royalty and their British overlords, the population of the Bengal tiger is slowly increasing thanks to the efforts of "Project Tiger". Since the animals come around the lakes in the park to drink water in the morning, you can see a number of species drinking water at the same spot. Return back to Hotel for Breakfast and time for relax and in the afternoon get ready again to enjoy the second Jeep Safari to scour the jungle for wildlife. Rest of the time is free to relax (or) enjoy facilities at Hotel. Stay overnight at hotel.
